Matters of Taste (MOT) is not a tour company. Bookings for events are made directly with suppliers. Refunds to clients within 8 weeks of tour date are subject to each suppliers/business owner terms and conditions. MOT cannot be held liable for any person, firm or company who provides such services. Having said that, obviously we will take all reasonable care to ensure you obtain specified services.

MOT accepts no responsibility or liability for death, injury or sickness or accident to any person or loss of, or any damage to any property or otherwise, or any cancellation, delay, detention, irregularity, deviation, substitution arising out of or in connection with any accommodation, transportation, conveyance or any other service provided by hotels, restaurants, airlines, coach companies, travel agents or any other services.

MOT is under no obligation or liability to clients as a result of any inaccuracy, mis-description or changes to the tour itinerary or for the losses or additional expenses due to delays, strikes, war, quarantine, acts of god, improper documents, or any other cause.

Neither MOT or its servants, agents or employees shall be or become liable or responsible for any additional expense or liability sustained or incurred by any client as a result of any of the foregoing clauses.

This tour is subject to minimum numbers attending. If for any reason this tour needs to be cancelled as a decision made by MOT, all paid moneys (subject to supplier terms and conditions) will be refunded.

MOT reserves the right to change suppliers, therefore altering the itinerary, if circumstances change within that business that are deemed to have a negative effect on the tour.

Tour place can only be cancelled if notified before 14th September 2017 (8 weeks before tour departs). A 25% fee (calculated on total tour cost) will be withheld from reimbursed monies.

TASMANIA

Extraordinary Culinary Tour 14th to 19th November 2017

Dining in Tasmania is diverse. From rustic country cafes to smart city venues the produce is invariably locally sourced and treated with respect and understanding.

Scattered around this island state, food producers operate mainly as cottage industries rather than big corporate entities. Differing values and cultures within these businesses mean they deliver personal, cared-for marbled steak from traditional cattle breeds, stone fruits picked from local orchards and sweet wild scallops plucked out of clean, ice-cold waters.

Five days of unearthing culinary delights offered in this unique corner of the world will leave you refreshed and invigorated. You'll cross the Bass Strait to a food lovers paradise.

Champagne Welcome Drinks at stunning waterside bar.

Tapas Bar Dinner.

Full Day Hands-On Paddock to Plate Cooking Class
