SOUTH AUSTRALIA

Extraordinary Culinary Tour

Wed 6th to Sun 10th September 2017

Adelaide is the city of surprises. Memorable meals, stunning city food market, funky street carts and more make this destination somewhat of an exclusive secret that the rest of Australia is unaware of.

The Barossa Valley, steeped in history is a spectacular rural patchwork of primary producers. Nowhere else is a community at one so evident than this part of our country. Visit the home of 'Grange', the famous and coveted red wine of this area.

Champagne Welcome Drinks at stunning city rooftop bar.

Variety of fabulous breakfasts, lunches and dinners throughout the tour.

French-Vietnamese Dinner.

Tour of largest fresh food market in southern hemisphere.
Meet stall holders, try produce and learn about merchandise.
Breakfast above the Market.

Two days exploring the beautiful Barossa Valley.

Maggie Beers Pheasant Farm Shop.

Rural Italian Wine Shop
Hands-on Rustic Pasta Making MasterClass and Long Table Lunch.

Hand-Crafted Pastry Producers - Meet the Maker
Pastry Cooking Class within working premises.

Tour of Penfolds. The home of the famous red wine, Grange.

Morning at Barossa Farmers Market.

Historical Tour and Lunch at the Barossas 'Grande-Dame' of wineries.

Incredible 18-Course Degustation Dinner.
Foraged native produce is used in stunning creations.
Truly delicious culinary theatre.
